From the Editor:

This year's Halloween theme brings a wide range of activities, so costumes are a must! We will be Trick and Treating throughout the 4th floor before dinner and dance on Friday. All very exciting and Fun! The Riverwatch Lounge is open at noon for lunch both days along with the bar.

Please! Please!

Due to constraints with the New York State Liquor Board, we can not bring our own alcoholic beverages into the Bar or Halloween Dance, complete with Karaoke. We can, however, bring them into the pool and have them in our rooms. Thanks everyone.

~ Updates ~

New

Clothing Exchange or sale. We are trying something new this year. We will have a table set up where you can sell or exchange a few of your "this no longer fits me but I just can't think of donating right now" kind of clothes. You know the ones I'm talking about. That nice sweater that you bought thinking you would lose weight and it would look great but the damn closet shrunk it on you. Or those cool boots that looked so good on you but killed you when you wore them the first time. So, bring an item, or a few items, put a price on them and sell them at our "CQW Out Of The Closet" table. Space is limited, so please don't bring your whole wardrobe.

Queen Items

Don't worry if you forgot your PJs, we have some, also fleece Jackets and assorted clothing with our Embroidered Castle Queens logo. Along with Wine Glasses and Charms, coffee mugs, and new this year, Koozies..
